NOTICE

This is for the information of all concerned that, vide Notice No. AUD/B.Ed(EE)/2026/4, dt. 12.06.2026, the B.Ed Entrance Examination-2026, has been scheduled to be held on 2nd August, 2026 (Sunday).

In this connection, all applicants are advised to check the status of their B.Ed Admission Application Form and ensure that their application has been duly approved by the concerned college. It is mandatory that the First Preference College approves the application for the generation of the Hall Ticket/Admit Card required for appearing in the B.Ed Entrance Examination-2026. No Admit Card will be generated for any candidate, whose application has not been approved by the First Preference College.

Therefore, candidates are directed to verify their application status immediately. If the status is found to be Pending, Under Approval, Rejected, or any other status indicating non-approval, the candidate must contact the concerned college on or before 30th June, 2026 so that the application may be verified and approved, if found eligible, after re-examination of the submitted testimonials.

Candidates requiring any correction, modification, or update in their submitted application form must contact or visit only their First Preference College. The First Preference College alone is authorized to make corrections, modifications, or updates to the submitted application.

It is further notified that no request for correction, modification, approval, or any other issue related to the submitted application form shall be entertained by the concerned colleges or the undersigned after 30th June 2026.
